Guidelines for Authors to publish in the ITPI Journal

1. Editor of the ITPI Journal would consider manuscripts dealing with the subject areas of town and country planning and development for review and likely publication based on the results of the peer review process.
2. All the manuscripts to be published in the ITPI Journal should be submitted in online mode through the website of the institute.
3. An undertaking must be sent by the authors that the paper has neither been published nor it will be communicated elsewhere without informing the Editor.
4. The views and opinion expressed in the paper will be of the Author(s) and ITPI in no way be responsible for views expressed by them.
5. Length of a manuscript submitted for publication in the ITPI Journal should not exceed 8,000 words. Smaller policy papers will be also accepted after full peer review process.
6. Each manuscript must have an appropriate title, names of authors and their affiliation along with their email addresses, brief bio of authors and passport size color photographs.
7. Title should be written in Rockwell font type with 16 font size in single space, and names of authors and their affiliations along with their email addresses should be written in Rockwell font type with 10 font size in single space.
8. Each manuscript must have an abstract of approximately 150 words and this should be prepared in Rockwell font type with 10 font size in single space.
9. Immediately after an abstract, authors should also include 4-6 key words or phrases in alphabetical order separated by commas.
10. When preparing a manuscript, one inch margin should be left on all four sides of an A4 size paper. Same page layout should be followed on all the pages of a manuscript.
11. Authors should prepare the entire manuscript (except the abstract) in Rockwell font type with 12 font size in single space.

Format of Research Paper

Manuscript in general should be arranged in the following order:

- Title (should be brief, clear and descriptive).
- Abstract
- Introduction (should reveal the justification of the study)
- Literature Review (brief and relevant)
- Database and Methodology
- Results and Discussion
- Conclusion
- Acknowledgement(s) if any
- References

Figures and Tables

- All the figures and tables, referred in the text, should be placed immediately or immediately next to their reference in the text of the manuscript.
- All figures and tables should be placed in the text of a manuscript and prepared in black and white in Rockwell font type with 11 font size.
- Clear titles and appropriate sources should be mentioned for all figures and tables.
- All figures and tables should be numbered consecutively.
- Figures and table titles and sources should be left aligned.
- Title on the top of a figure or table and source underneath the figure or table should be mentioned as shown below:

Table 1: Planning Practice in India

12. Plagiarism is considered an academic misconduct by the ITPI Journal. Some examples of plagiarism include copying verbatim or using another author's ideas as your own by:
 - Quoting verbatim of another author's work without proper citation of the source in the text and in the list of reference;
 - Paraphrasing another person's work by changing some of words, or the order of words without due citation of the source;
 - Using ideas taken from someone else without reference to the original author;
 - Cutting and pasting from the Internet is clearly regarded plagiarism;
 - Submitting someone else's work as part of author's own without identifying clearly who did the work.
13. Self-plagiarism is also considered academic misconduct by the ITPI Journal. Self-plagiarism refers to the practice of an author using portions of his previous writings on the same topic in another article without specifically citing the self-plagiarized material.
14. After including the referee's comments and suggestions, if any, the author(s) will re-submit the final manuscript to ITPI. The final manuscript should not have plagiarism more than ten percent. Author(s) may submit the plagiarism report along with the final manuscript for publication.
15. If there is any 'conflict of interest' in connection with the submission of a manuscript, it should be made public when submitting the manuscript to the Editor.
16. The Editor of the ITPI Journal in consultation with the Editorial Board members will consider from time-to-time revision of these guidelines to comply with evolving standards and ethical concerns.

Any query regarding publication of papers in the ITPI Journal may be communicated at publication@itpi.org.in. Manuscripts are liable to be rejected by the Editor if the soft copy of a manuscript is not received. All manuscripts should be sent to Prof. Dr. Ashwani Luthra, Editor and Secretary (Publications), Institute of Town Planners, India, 4-A, Ring Road, I.P. Estate, New Delhi - 110002, India.
